

Allanson Street Primary School Newsletter

21st April 2017

This week: Welcome back! We hope you all had a lovely Easter break. On Tuesday, our Nursery and Reception classes had a visit some of the animals at Acorn Farm, the children had a lovely time. Today, our Reception classes went on a trip to Blackpool Zoo.

Next week: The school nurse will be in carrying out our Reception Vision, Hearing, Height and Weight checks, letters have been sent home about this. On Thursday, Year 3 are taking part in a Roman Britain, History of the Page workshop.

Class Photographs: Your child should have brought home the proof from the class photo's that were taken before the Easter break. If you would like to order a copy, please ensure this is returned to your child's teacher by Wednesday 26th April.

Sports News

Well done to Lucy Nield, in Year 2, who came 2nd in a cheerleading competition. A massive well done to Keith Chapman who got through to the second trial for the St Helen's School Boys team. He will hear in the next few weeks whether he has got through to the final trial. We all wish him lots of luck. Well Done to 5 children in Year 1 and 2 who represented the school very well in a tournament at Lansbury Bridge today. They were brilliant. The Year 4 football team played well in a tournament this week too.

If your child achieves anything out of school from a sports club please let Mrs Hawkins know and we will mention it in the newsletter.

Childcare Choices, the cross-government childcare brand and campaign has launched, providing parents with a single point of information for all the government funded childcare offers, including the two new offers: 30 hours free childcare and Tax Free Childcare. Launch of new Childcare Choices website means parents are now able to find available government support. Parents can pre-register from today for the government's new childcare offers, with the launch of a new Childcare Choices government website www.childcarechoices.gov.uk.

Reception Stars of the week: Due to our trip there are no stars of the week this week.
