

Allanson Street Primary School Newsletter

Friday 23rd November 2018

This week: Thank you to all the parents/carers that attended parents' evening appointments. We hope you are pleased with your child's progress and enjoyed seeing their work to date. On Tuesday, the photographer came in and took individual/sibling photos, the proofs will be sent home next week for you to purchase photographs if you wish. Thank you for the generous £1 donations today for our "Adventure for Alex" Christmas Fair fundraising. We have raised approximately £350 so far.

Next Week: On Monday, Year 5 will be taking part in Crucial Crew sessions. On Tuesday, there will be a SATs English workshop for Year 6 parents/carers at 3:30pm. Our nativity rehearsals also begin this week, we look forward to hearing the beautiful singing throughout school. Details of nativities will be sent home nearer the time and we look forward to seeing the results of all the hard work from the children (and staff!) at their performances very soon. On Friday, our non-uniform donation is for full bottles.

Christmas Tree Light Switch on: Councillor Kate Groucutt, the Parr Ward Councillor has contacted us to let us know there will be a Christmas tree in Parr for the first time and there will be a little event to switch the lights on and this will be attended by the Mayor of St Helens.

The light switch on will take place on Tuesday 4th December at 4pm in the area in front of St Philips Church, junction of Fleet Lane and Derbyshire Hill, WA9 2NQ. Everyone welcome.

Willowbrook: As with previous years, Willowbrook have brought in some festive teddies (magnets) for us to sell to help with their fundraising. We still have gingerbread boys and girls, elves and Father Christmas' for sale at £1 (all toys are selling fast!)
