Friday 30th November 2018

This week: On Monday, Year 5 went to Langtree Park and took part in activities with Crucial Crew. Thank you to the parents/carers that came to our Year 6 workshop on Tuesday - we hope you found all the information useful. Our Key Stage 1 children have been practicing and working really hard in the rehearsals for their nativities. Letters have been sent home giving information on ticket sales.

Thank you for all the donation of bottles today for the Christmas Fair.

Next Week: Thursday is our Christmas Fair. The children will go home at 1.30pm on this day and we invite you all to return at 2.30pm when our Christmas Fair opens. This year we are hoping to make the fair bigger and better than ever and raise as much money as possible for our 'Adventure for Alex' project.

Christmas Tree Light Switch on: Councillor Kate Groucutt, the Parr Ward Councillor has contacted us to let us know there will be a Christmas tree in Parr for the first time and there will be a little event to switch the lights on and this will be attended by the Mayor of St Helens. The light switch on will take place on Tuesday 4th December at 4pm in the area in front of St Philips Church, junction of Fleet Lane and Derbyshire Hill, WA9 2NQ. Everyone welcome.

St Helens Library Service is offering even more opportunity for reading for pleasure with the launch of our new e-book and e-comic services. RB Digital Comics gives avid comics fans 24/7 access to a range of the very best Marvel titles available to read via Android, Apple, Kindle Fire or PC. With a roster of well-loved characters such as Avengers, Black Panther, Captain America, Guardians of the Galaxy, Spider-Man and X-Men; library members get to experience these thrilling adventures first hand - for free.

In addition, our new eBook and eAudiobook service, BorrowBox enables 24/7 access to a wide range of the very best fiction and non-fiction titles and audio-books available to download via Android, Apple, Kindle Fire or PC. Many of the children's eAudiobooks in the collection are fully-realised audio dramas, featuring immersive sound effects and voices.

Any form of reading, whether it's a classic novel or a comic book, is something that we as a library service will always look to encourage and your help in promoting this to your pupils will be appreciated.

To find out more, visit: www.sthelens.gov.uk/libraries and click on the eBook Services link - or come on down to your local library and we will help you to use this great new offer.
